CHARGED WITH LARCENY

Southern Express Company Messenger Arrested in Macon.

Macon, Ga., May 28.—Oscar D. Williams, employed by the Southern Express Company as a messenger, was arrested here eysterday in connection with the disappearance of $4,000 intrusted to the company's care. He is charged with larceny after trust.

Agents of the company claim that they found a cigar box yesterday under Williams's home at Fort Valley, Ga., containing $3,000, and that $250 was found hidden here.

Seven packages of mency recently disappeared in as many days while in possession of the company. The largest amount lost in any one day was $2,000. Fred Thompson, a young man here, was arrested shortly after Williams was taken in charge. Thompson is accused of gaming, and the police claim he won some of the money the messenger is alleged to have stolen.

Loss of Sleep Something Awful. Itching and Burning. Hated to Make Appearance in Public. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

714 West Grand Ave., Oklahoma City, Okla.-"My face was completely covered with eczenia and the loss of sleep caused by the itching and burning of the sores was something awful. It itched and burned until I scratched it constantly and it broke out in sores which bled and cozed a yellowish

WY. fluid. It looked so badly that I hated to make my appearance in public.
"I tried a good many remedies for ecsema but they did me no good whatever. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment for the toilet and bath and applied Cuticura Ointment to my face at night just before retiring. After using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment but one week my face was nearly well and after a month's steady use my face was completely cured." (Signed) J. Harry Barbour, July 12, 1918. In the care of baby's skin and hair, Cuticura Soap is the mother's favorite. Not only is it unrivaled in purity and refreshing fragrance, but its gentle emollient properties are usually sufficient to allay minor tritations, remove redness, roughness and chafing, and soothe sensitive conditions. Assisted by Cuticura Ointment, it is most valuable in the treatment of eczemas, rashes and other itching, burning infantile eruptions. A single set is often sufficient. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T. Boston." Men who shave and shampoo with Outicura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.
